| 1. The first part of the report is a general introduction to the subject of the study. It includes a brief history of the problem and a statement of the objectives of the study. | 2. The second part of the report is a detailed description of the methods used in the study. This includes a description of the experimental design, the subjects, the materials, and the procedures. |
| 3. The third part of the report is a presentation of the results of the study. This includes a description of the data collected and a summary of the findings. | 4. The fourth part of the report is a discussion of the results and their implications. This includes a comparison of the results with previous research and a discussion of the limitations of the study. |
| 5. The fifth part of the report is a conclusion and a list of references. The conclusion summarizes the main findings of the study and the references list the sources of information used in the study. | 6. The sixth part of the report is an appendix containing additional information that is not included in the main body of the report. This may include raw data, detailed descriptions of the experimental procedures, or other relevant information. |
| 7. The seventh part of the report is a bibliography listing the sources of information used in the study. This includes books, articles, and other relevant sources. | 8. The eighth part of the report is a list of figures and tables. This includes a description of each figure and table and a reference to its location in the report. |
| 9. The ninth part of the report is a list of abbreviations and a glossary. This includes a definition of each abbreviation and a list of key terms used in the study. | 10. The tenth part of the report is a list of footnotes. This includes any additional information that is not included in the main body of the report but is relevant to the study. |

| 1. The first part of the report is a general introduction to the subject of the study. It discusses the importance of the problem and the objectives of the research. | 2. The second part of the report is a detailed description of the methods used in the study. It includes a discussion of the experimental design, the data collection procedures, and the statistical analysis techniques. |
| 3. The third part of the report is a presentation of the results of the study. It includes a discussion of the findings, the interpretation of the data, and the conclusions drawn from the research. | 4. The fourth part of the report is a discussion of the implications of the study. It includes a discussion of the limitations of the research, the strengths of the findings, and the potential for future research. |
| 5. The fifth part of the report is a conclusion. It summarizes the main findings of the study and provides a final statement on the importance of the research. | 6. The sixth part of the report is a list of references. It includes a list of the sources used in the study, as well as a list of the works cited in the literature. |
| 7. The seventh part of the report is an appendix. It includes a list of the figures and tables used in the study, as well as a list of the data used in the analysis. | 8. The eighth part of the report is a list of the authors' names and affiliations. It includes a list of the names of the researchers who conducted the study, as well as a list of the institutions where they are currently working. |
| 9. The ninth part of the report is a list of the acknowledgments. It includes a list of the individuals and organizations that provided support and assistance during the course of the research. | 10. The tenth part of the report is a list of the appendices. It includes a list of the additional materials that are included in the report, such as the raw data, the statistical analysis, and the figures. |
